Trip Acct: $ 832.00 (still have $21,500 to pay)

Business:

- POC is this weekend, volunteers have signed up...Celine has double checked commitments, all stations have a volunteer except at the back at the sidewalk “y” by the gym – need one more volunteer there to direct traffic...maybe need another person or two to help the kids dress out in uniform.

- If weather is truly unplayable (thunderstorms) then we move to a stand still performance in the gym.

- Cones are ordered and port-a-potty coming

- Kevin will talk to leadership about collecting trash after the football game Friday night. Kevin will open gates to stadium at 12 noon. Kevin will set up tables and chairs. Kevin has a key to snack bar and will turn on the water heater for hot chocolate.

- Celine will have T-shirts to grab on Saturday for volunteers to wear to identify them as POC helpers. Celine will have name tags too. Celine will make up a list of VIP guests and special wrist band / ticket holders already disbursed.
 - We are feeding Sparks Middle School (160) kids lunch,
 - Sheryl Cohen will be the designated first aid person.
 - Gwen Lorsen will have a tool cache in her truck
 - water bottles will be available for volunteers at the volunteer table; we will sell rain ponchos at the snack bar (from the Dollar Store); Celine will buy cup of noodles for snack bar.
 - We are responsible for garbage pickup after the competition ends – so everyone do their part to clean up.
 - Our band performs at 4:00pm; awards are at 4:45.
 - Cash and checks accepted, but no credit cards at entrance gate and snack bar. Shout-outs sell for $5 at the snack bar – Damonte and McQueen have opted out of shoutouts.
 - POC banner – either in the trailer or in the room somewhere; Steve / Celine will find and hang
- Sunday Oct 23rd is the day the band plays at the airport for the welcome back of the honor flight: 10 brass, 2-4 drummers, from 11am – 2pm (not committed to this yet; Kevin still looking into it)

- Hawaii – link on the website to official parade site (last year’s line up) parade is at night 7pm; Kevin will put together an itinerary and a packing list and Steve will put up on the website

-Kevin will call about marching in November in the downtown Reno Veteran’s Day parade

- On Nov 12th there will be a benefit race run at Galena and all profits will go to the band for the Hawaii trip ... “The Grizzly Grind”

- Call time for Friday’s game is 6pm

- Call time on Saturday 10:00am

- Band winter concert at Atlantis on Tuesday Nov. 29th

- Next Booster meeting Nov. 7th at 7pm

Meeting adjourned at 7:52pm
